THE WILD LIFE

Looks like something exciting is going on.

Left, Left, Left, Right, Left.

What's all the commotion about?

Shouldn't you be running?

Don't look too happy George.

Change is a big part of all of our lives, especially now that the seniors are venturing into "the real world." Choosing a college, making the application deadlines, and, of course, the dreaded essays are all part of being a senior, along with possible job interviews or physicals for the service. Even though the class of '94 is stepping into many new experiences, they are walking away from numerous familiarities: the Cavalier Cafe, pep assemblies, VoTech students being involved with VICA, "Good Morning Kiskil" announcements and Channel One, Homecoming, the monthly publications of the Kiskizette, bumpy school bus rides, the hassles of trying to get a driving pass, and the Campus Yearbook. So, before graduation night and the first day of the rest of their lives, the seniors are all trying to preserve the wild life, living each day to its fullest. Thinking ahead, we all are looking forward to the wild life of summer and each coming year.

Shouldn't you be on the bus?

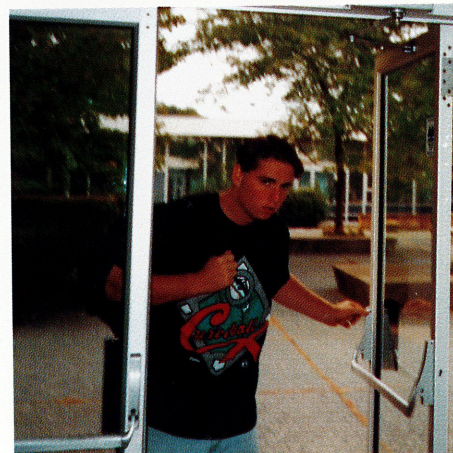

Brad Cignetti charges onward to gain yards for his record.

It looks like there's nothing to cheer about.

Preserving

A slow dance with your date, chatting with your friends, or just sitting taking it all in. No matter what your memory of the prom is, there is one thing that everyone can agree on: it was definitely a night "Under the Canopy . . . An Evening in the Rain Forest" that no one will ever forget.

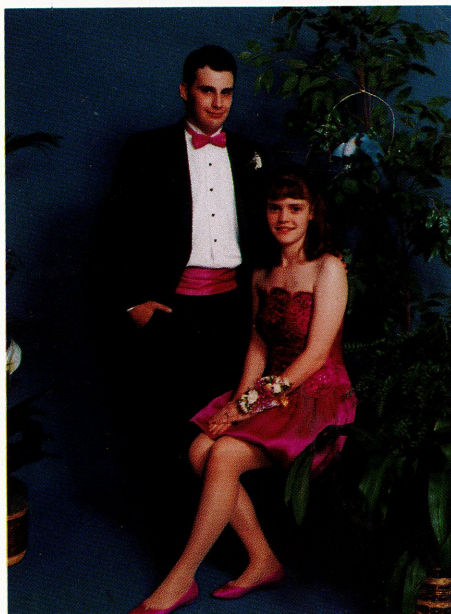

With the enchanting tropical atmosphere of Laube Hall, the reggae band, caricatures, the gorilla, comedian, and the disc jokey the evening was made more memorable.

"Has the Prom become a strip tease?"

Heather McKearn, Margaret Petrak and Laura Bowser

Norm Cardaro and Jenn West

Shawn Artman and Lisa DiFranco

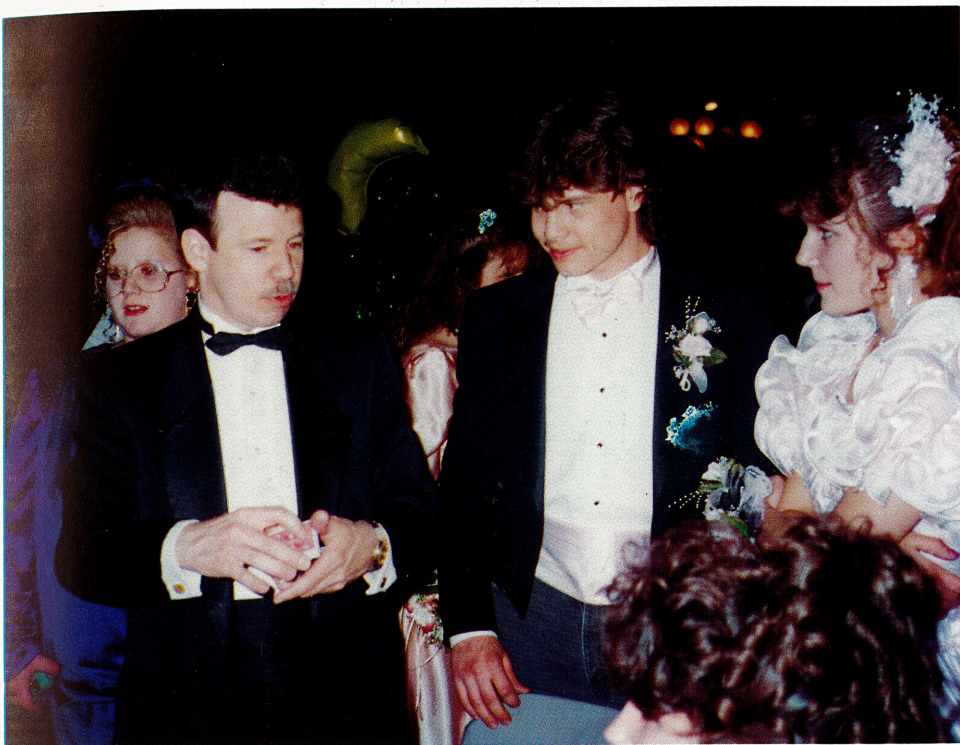

"I wanna touch the ceiling."

Jason Sylvis and Dayna Graham dance the night away.

The Wild Life

"Pick a card any card."

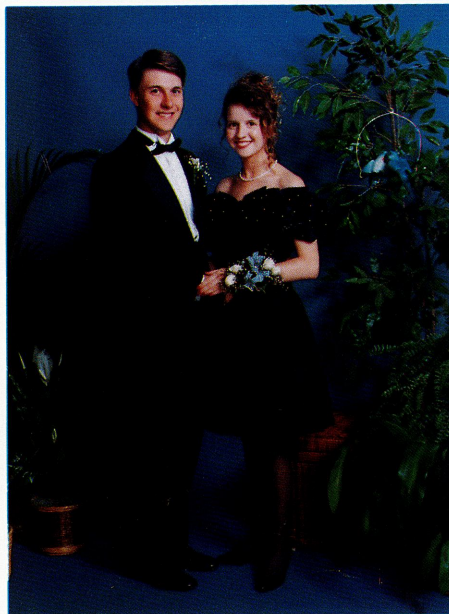

Ryan Lentz and Mary Passarelli

Jason Haigh and Kristin Blystone

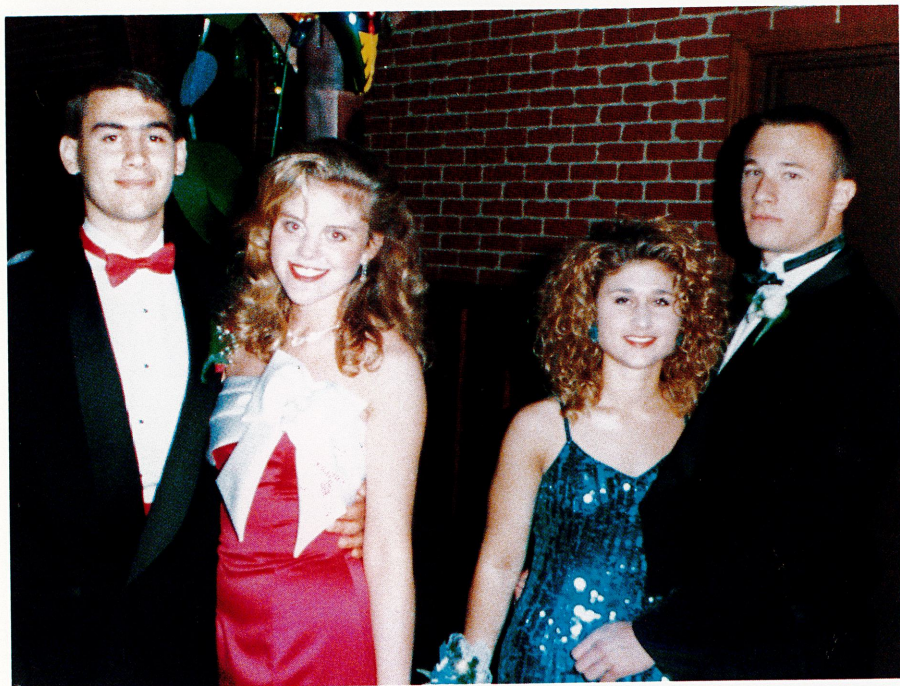

Dana Ardisson and Rick Berardinelli

Paul Gamble and Ruth Lubik

In The Tropical

Kristen Thomas and Amy York are staying close to their dates.

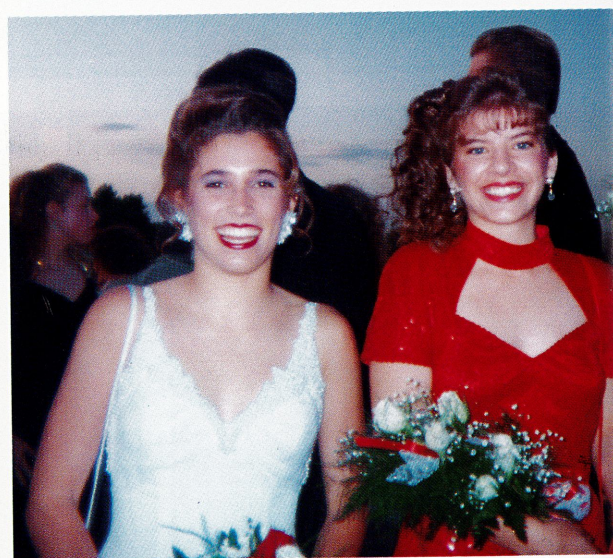

Jason Orlowski and Jen Wilcox

Juanita Shirey and Dave McNutt

Amanda Jones and Rick Kaczor

Kelly Walmsley and Jen Ciuca smile brightly.

Right: Craig and Lyndsey have their character drawn.

Rainforest

Brian and Jenn enjoy the Prom.

Ace of clubs anyone?

Aren't they a lovely couple?

Come on, Come on do the locomotion with me.

Who left that monkey in?

Shades Of Change

For most students, school began on September 1, but for the approximately 30 members of the Campus Yearbook Staff, the school years never seem to end. In July, different parts of the staff held meetings. The business staff started selling advertisements to local businesses; the six editors, including editor-in-chief and senior Ruth Lubik, met with the new faculty adviser, Mrs. Kim Poleski. Then, while coping with another big change - the moving of the SAR to a new location, the organization of the yearbook began.

During the first week of school, the editors started daily activity period meetings and not long after that, full staff meetings began. You may notice a yearbook staff member leaving your homeroom, but what else do you know about the yearbook?

The first, and probably the most rushed deadline for the first 50 pages was November 1. If you would have visited the SAR during the week before that deadline, you would have seen Mrs. Poleski supervising staff members while they completed many different tasks. The production staff drew pages and chose pictures of each page. Meanwhile, captions needed to be written, and the literary staff scrambled to do interviews and stories for all the different subjects. Photographs were taken. The senior's curriculums needed to be found. But before all this, the editors met with a representative from Jostens, the company that manufactures the yearbook. They decided on all the details, such as the print type and the cover.

However, every Thursday the staff took a break to sell donuts. They strive to keep the price of the yearbook low, and the profits from sales are added to the operating budget to achieve this goal. Because of excess profit, the staff was able to do something new this year: name stamping. Hopefully other new things will continue in the future.

The yearbook is an important part of the school year. Each year the campus staff's goal is to create a better yearbook. Without the dedication and hard work of the staff, this would not be possible. Good Job Everyone!

Class of ... 94

After three dark years at Kiski, our senior year we've seen the light! Many changes greeted Kiski this year, from new lights to a new principal, but for seniors, the biggest change is being the oldest in the school, the ones that everyone looks up to.

Senior year is stressful because of the future, but it is the most important year in high school; it's our last year of being together.

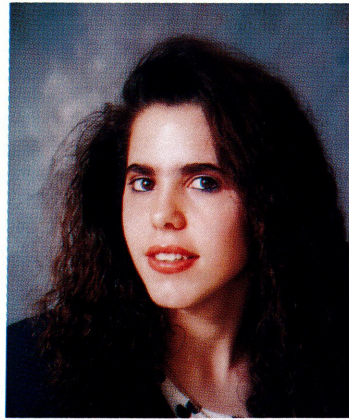

We have carried on the traditional elevator joke, although now there really is an elevator. We have sold magazines, just as past seniors have, we labored over research papers, and we all took Economics. Looking at past years at Kiski, and looking at Kiski now, nothing has changed. But when we look at our class individually, we know that it's not like every other class that has passed through.

Last year we may not have known the members on the Homecoming Court, but this year it was our class, our friends. As underclassmen we went to Laube Hall to watch the upperclassmen walk in for the prom; this year we were the ones walking in. For three years we've walked through empty halls on the infamous "Senior Skip Day"; this year we were home with the flu.

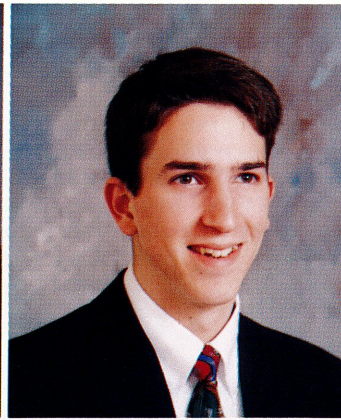

It may seem that nothing changes at the "Big K," but we know that it is important that the traditions at Kiski don't change from making senior year the most memorable year in high school.

Miss Teenage Pennsylvania Pageant

Many young girls dream of being Miss America and our own Carolyn Maxim came close to that dream last summer. Carolyn, a graduating senior, entered the 1993 Miss Teenage Pennsylvania Scholarship Pageant sponsored by Danfranc Productions. Carolyn was chosen from nearly 200 applicants to compete in the pageant in Mount Laurel, New Jersey, on July 23 through July 25, 1993.

Carolyn said that the experience was truly enjoyable. Even though the contestants had to work hard, they found time to have fun. Meeting girls with the same interests and making friends was an important part of the pageant. The first part of the competition was an on-stage, prepared speech about the contestant's career and educational goals. Next was the modeling of evening gowns. Finally, the field was narrowed to seven, one of which was Carolyn. The competition concluded with an unrehearsed question.

Even though Carolyn did not advance to national competition, she had the honor of representing Pennsylvania as one of seven finalists. Along with the finals, Danfranc Productions presented the contestants with various awards. Carolyn won the 1993 Spirit of Cooperation Award. This award recognizes Carolyn as the one young lady who exhibited the best sportsmanship and cooperation throughout the pageant weekend. Carolyn's spirit is evident in her school activities also. She has been involved in Varsity Cross Country and Track, Student Council, SADD, the Varsity Club and Show Choir. Kiski is certainly proud of Carolyn. Congratulations and Good Luck!

Carolyn Maxim entered a pageant, . . .

. . . and made new friends.

Senior

Most Likely To Succeed

Lynsey Brandt and Bill Karazsia will achieve success and happiness.

Best Vocalist

Singing is their expertise and they're never off key . . . it's John Foley and Dayna Graham.

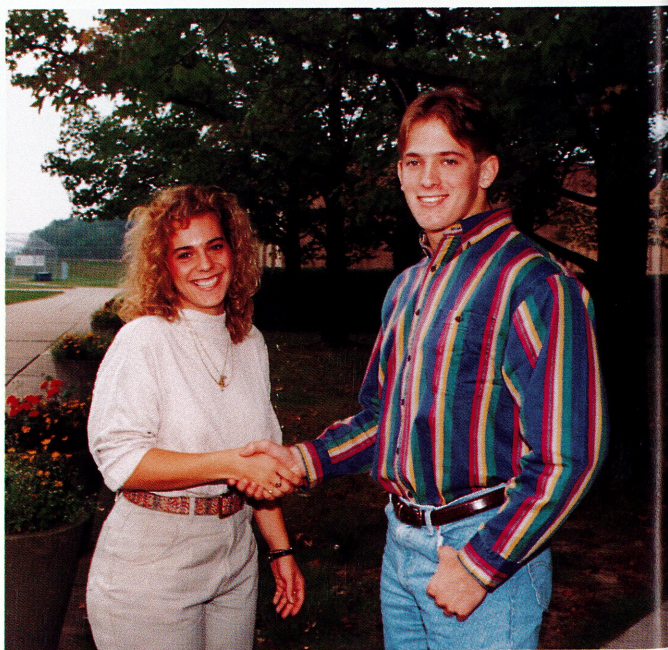

LeeAnn Palarino and Bryan Harchuck are easily recognized by their smiling faces and friendly attitudes.

Prettiest Smile

Carolyn Maxim and Stuart Milcic both turned out wonderfully in the picture, especially their smiles.

Friendliest

Specials

Prettiest Eyes

"Beauty is in the eye of the beholder" is the motto for Jason Artman and Kelli Scott, who's eyes are definately beautiful.

Best Dressed

Ethan Burgess and Kelly Walmsley model their terrific fashion sense.

Class Clowns

Who's always there when you need to laugh? Why it's Mara Kudrick and Ted Matlack, they're always monkeying around!

Most School Spirit

Get pumped, get rocked, get Jason Silvis and Ebony Allensworth. They'll get the crowd wild.

Most Talkative

"I love to talk!" as George Suppers and Cyndi Loudon would say.

Biggest Flirt

Christine Mazak watch out, it's Dave Romanowsky! If he flirts with you, flirt right back.

Class Couple

It seems that our class couple, Angie Smith and Jeremy Speicher, will always be together,

Most Athletic

Whether it's football or tennis, Brian Fields and Kim McDermott will be there.

Most Attractive

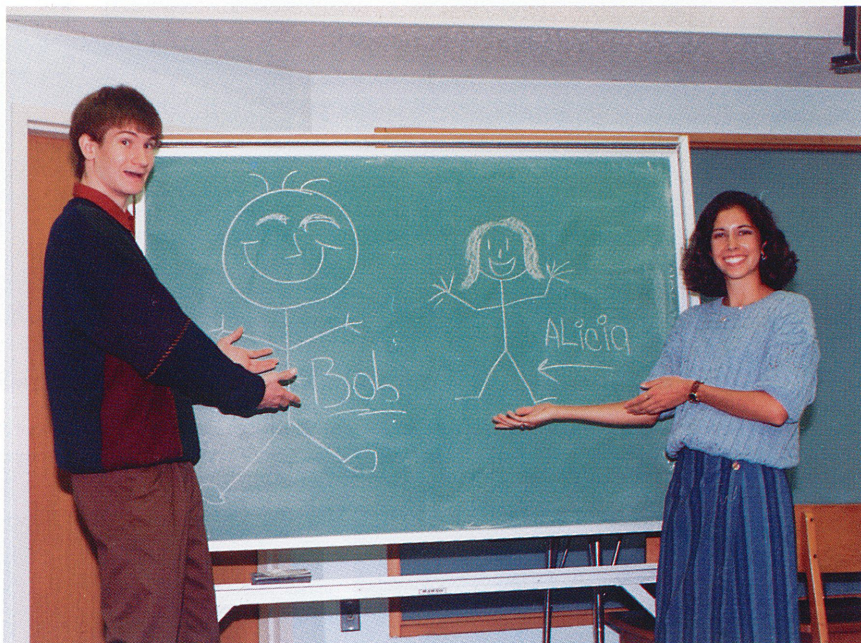

Beauty can be appreciated in everything we see. Isn't that right Rachael Behary and Mark LaRusse?

Most Popular

Most Artistic

Grab your easel and paintbrush. It's Kiski's most artistic, Bob Martin and Alicia Kardos.

Best Musician

Left: We all love our most popular seniors, Jon Dykes and Roni Yarussi. Above: Trombone and flute, Jeff Bush and Francene Calizzi, what nice harmony.

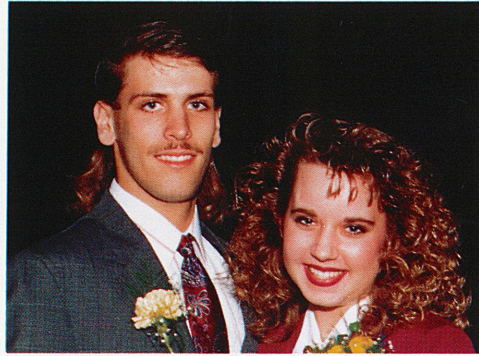

Who stands out to the class of '94? Why, take a look at the Senior Specials to find out. The categories range from Most Humorous to Most Likely To Succeed. Who Knows? The class of 1994 may hold a future Seinfeld or Einstein.

HOMECOMING COURT

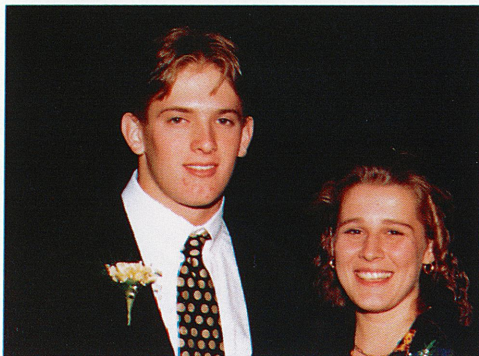

Rachael Behary, queen, with Wade Schneider.

Jason Silvis, and Dayna Graham loving, the atmosphere.

Bryan Harchuck and Tara Kovalik, practicing their poses.

Smiling Caitlin Murphy and Mark LaRusse.

Kelli Scott and John Foley await the results.

Jessica Jewert added to the special moment.

Rachael Behary

Jennifer Fedusa

Dayna Graham

Tara Kovalik

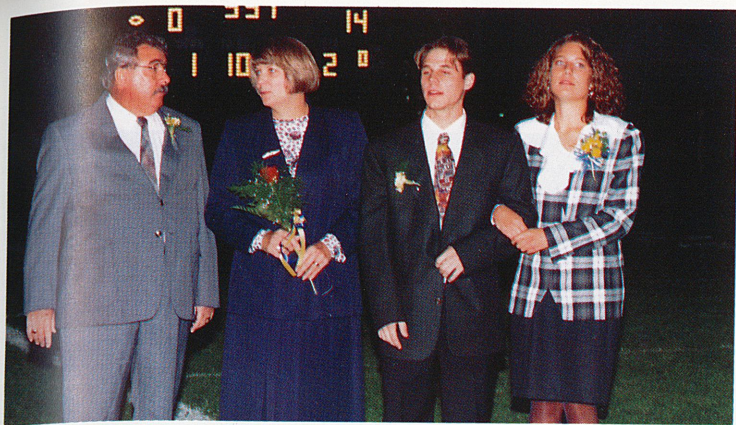

Caitlin Murphy

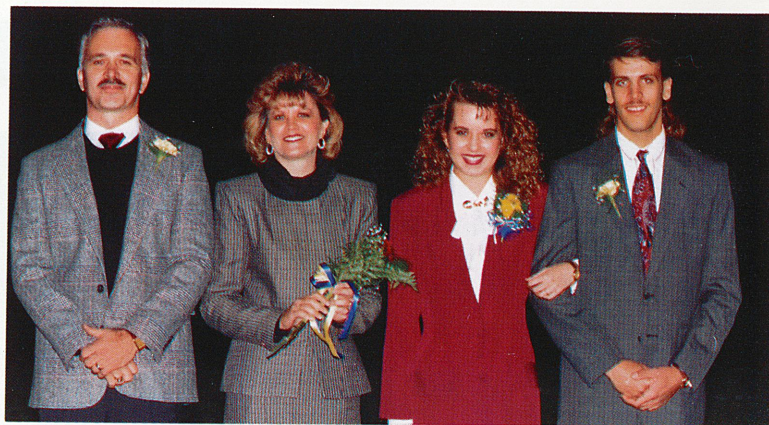

Kelli Scott

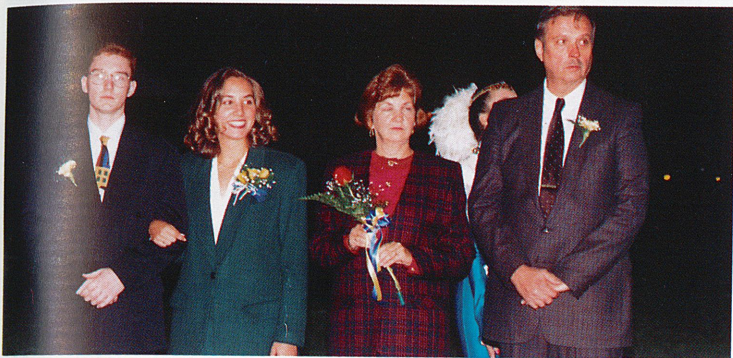

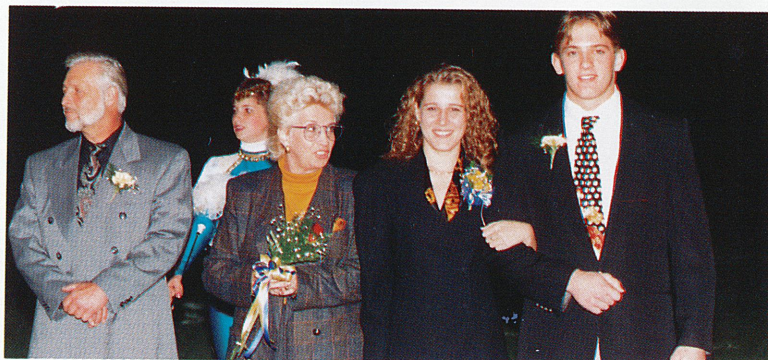

Rachael's parents stood beside her and escort, Wade, through the Homecoming event.

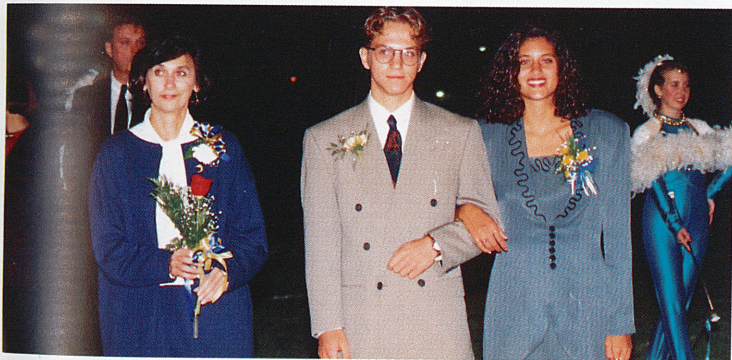

Jennifer stood by Brian and happy her parents and smiled confidently.

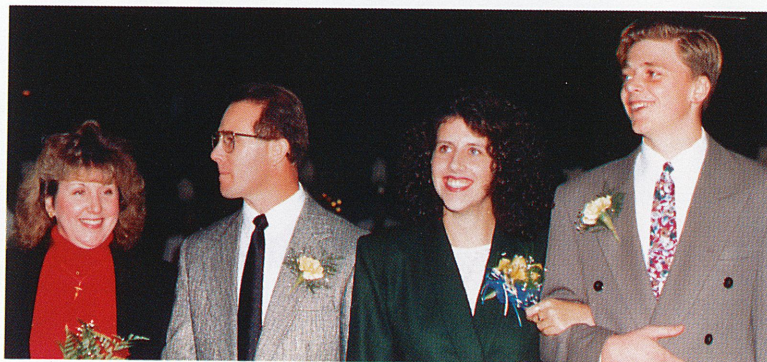

Dayna, Jason, and her parents anxiously awaited the declaration of the queen.

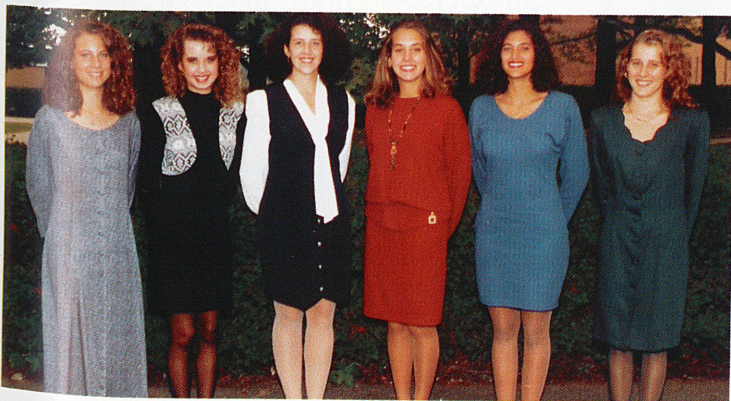

Tara and Bryan, along with Tara's parents, felt great that the special night was finally here.

Caitlin, Mark and Caitlin's mother could not escape the hustle and bustle of Homecoming festivities.

Kelli with escort, John, beamed at their friends and hoped, as did her parents, that things go well.

Six girls started the quest for the crown.

The night of October 1 was a memorable evening for the six girls of the Homecoming Court. The members of the court were Rachael Behary, escorted by Wade Schneider; Jennifer Fedusa, escorted by Brian Miller; Dayna Graham with escort Jason Silvis; Tara Kovalik and escort Bryan Harchuck; Caitlin Murphy, escorted by Mark LaRusse; and Kelli Scott with escort John Foley. Even though only one of them could become queen, each and every girl should be proud of the accomplishment. Being nominated by peers and representing Kiski are important things. The evening of Homecoming will live in the hearts and in the memories of every member of the court.

HOMEcoming QUEEN

The 1993 Homecoming Queen is . . . Miss Rachael Behary.

Wade had the pleasure of escorting Rachael for the evening.

Rachael receives words of congratulations from friends.

Rachael is crowned by Jen Dick, the 1992 Queen.

Wade and Rachael are unsuspecting of the events to come.

On October first, nineteen hundred ninety three, Rachael Behary was crowned the 1993-1994 Homecoming Queen. During halftime at Davis Field, Rachael, escorted by Wade Schneider, celebrated the beginning of her reign as Kiski's queen. After the weeks of anticipation and nervousness that led to the crowning, those emotions turned into joy and happiness. The special Homecoming night will always be remembered fondly by Rachael, her family and friends.

TAKE A WALK

Roni Yarussi yells, "We say Kiski, you say Cavsl!"

"I pledge allegiance . . ."

Ted Matlack, King Kiski himself, will wait on you in the student store.

Mandi Skwirut looks happy to pack up and leave class.

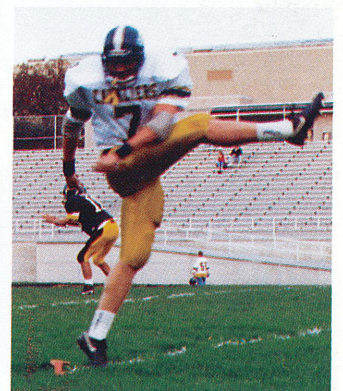

Patti's crutch-using skill is evident by Chrissy's smile.

"AAAA-CHOOOI" Bless you Gina.

Lee Hartz is involved in an intellectual conversation.

Dan Bengale practices his kicking technique for the game.

Jennifer Safranyos works hard, helping to make the band champions.

Well Clayton Eyler, what did you do this time?

ON THE WILD SIDE

Joe Martin is heavily involved in his experiment. Careful, don't set anything on fire!

Football captains Dan, Brad, Jon, and Stu prepare to meet the opposition. The battle is on!

Sherri Siford and Scott Carricato look tired after watering the team during a time-out.

Is this a class or is it social hour?

Left: Jason Silvis has school spirit as he runs by getting the crowd pumped. Right: Erin Shields, I have a research paper that needs typed. Are you busy?

Jamie Lawhorn presents Mr. Dilts with a gift as a show of thanks for all he's done and a wish of Goodluck.

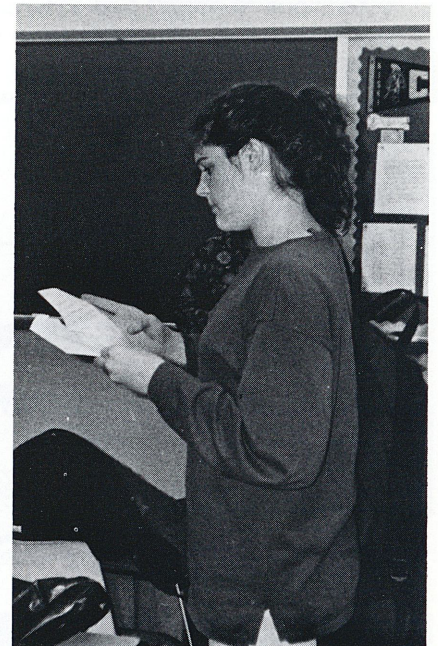

Shelly Walters does not seem captivated by Margaret Choltco's story.

Carolyn Maxim takes time to workout.

The career conference speakers follow guide Heather Fields to their rooms for an enlightening presentation.

Kim Stanek checks over her paper, or maybe a love note!

The band works hard as player Heather Thompson (above) and drum major, Francene Calizzi, (right) demonstrate.

Dana Trebilcock, did you lose your homework? You seem frantic.

Amy Myers, Carrie Garrone, and Raylene Fox display their wild side.

The people on the bus go up and down . . .

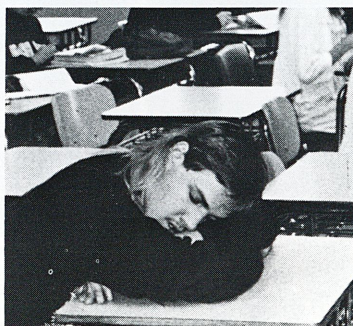

Like the mighty elephant who remembers every detail of its life, the junior class holds its memories of the past three years in a mind that never forgets. While keeping numerous memories, the class of 1995 strives to surpass the experiences of earlier years. Determination to prove a purpose and trying to succeed in all endeavors are traits that make both elephants and juniors one of a kind.

K.A. Juniors have spirit . . . yeah-yeah

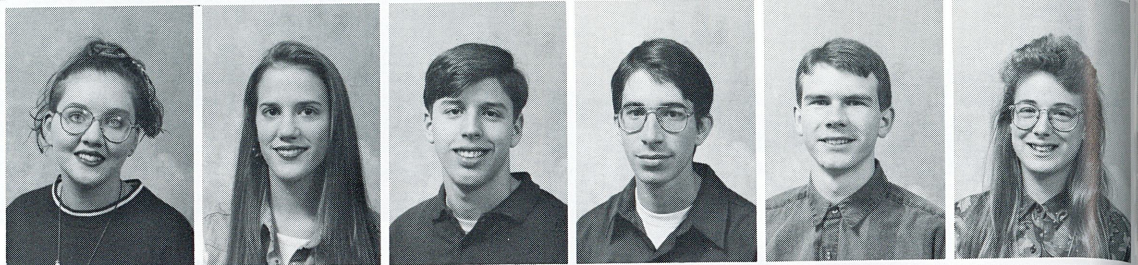

Go Mandy Grafton!

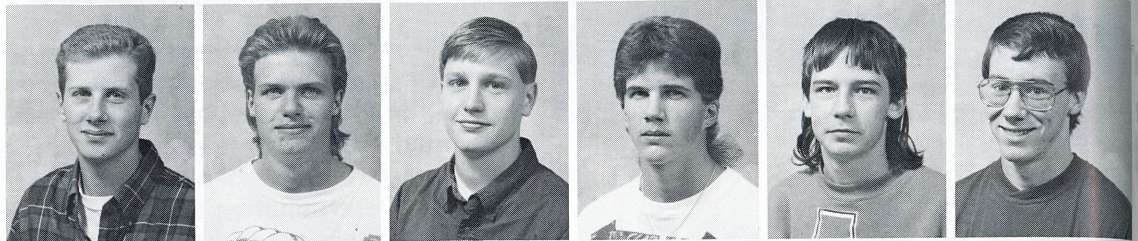

Far Left: Wendy Dobrolwski helps her fellow student with her homework. Above: I thought the sign said "DO NOT FEED THE ANIMALS?" Left: "In the jungle, the mighty jungle, the lion sleeps tonight."

Grrr . . . the class of 1996 returned to the Big K for their sophomore year. Feeling a little older and a little wiser, they pounce on new opportunities. And, like any cat, were sure in their feet. As they continue into the future, fearlessly facing all obstacles and tearing problems to shreds, success will be theirs.

Don't these students look inspired?

Who me?

It's not nice to stare.

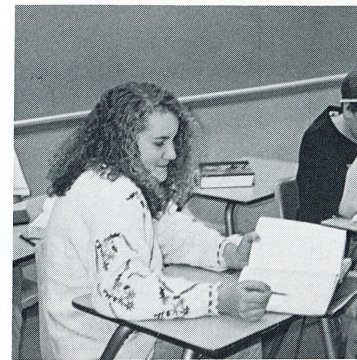

You're not copying are you April McFee?

Shawn Kozera looks like he actually enjoys doing work. Are you feeling ok?

Are you studying to dissect a frog?

You're not looking for the answer are you?

Fake right, Fake Left, touchdown!

Is this foods or a beauty salon?

Autumn Dunn, you don't have to bite their heads off because they're laughing!

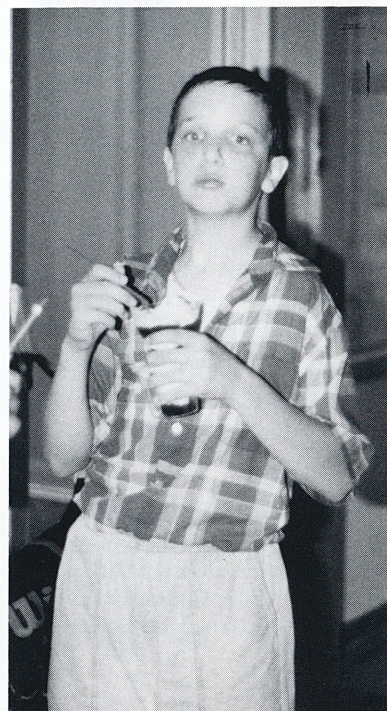

74 Freshmen

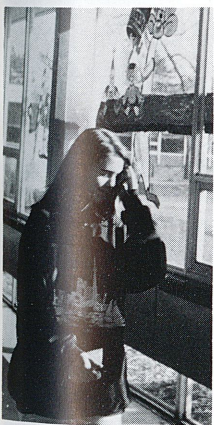

Are they black stripes on white fur? Or white stripes on black? Whatever they are, it seems like the zebra is trying to blend in with something, like freshman trying to blend in with upperclassmen. As time goes on, a zebra looks more and more comfortable in his surroundings, as a freshman does while completing his first year at the Big K.

The ninth grade cheerleaders support their classmates.

Did you bring us any ice cream Brian Carricato?

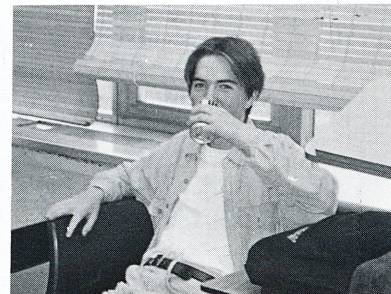

Kristen Kimble, don't be shy!

Got a little too wild did we?

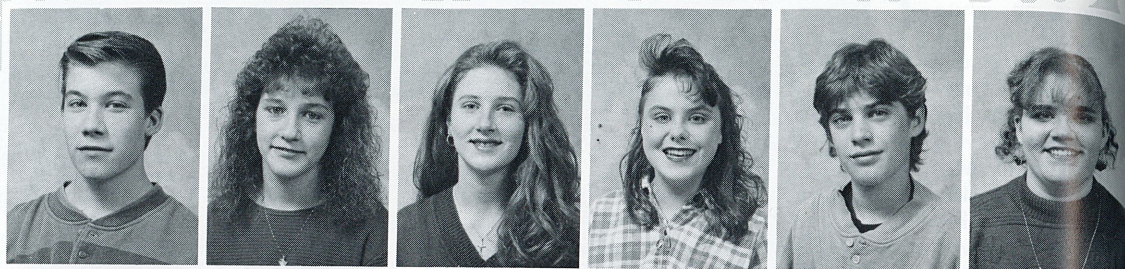

Kevin Kovalchick amazes an observer at this year's science show.

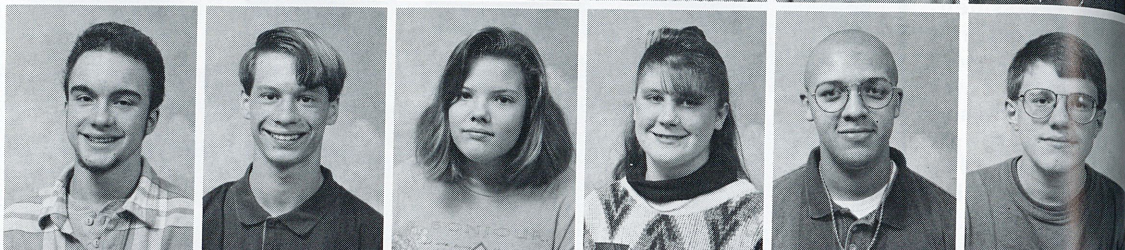

Are you allowed to drink that?

Freshmen Class Officers

Allen Ednie, President; Julie Purvis, Treasurer; Jenna Porter, Vice President; Joe Vaglia, Secretary

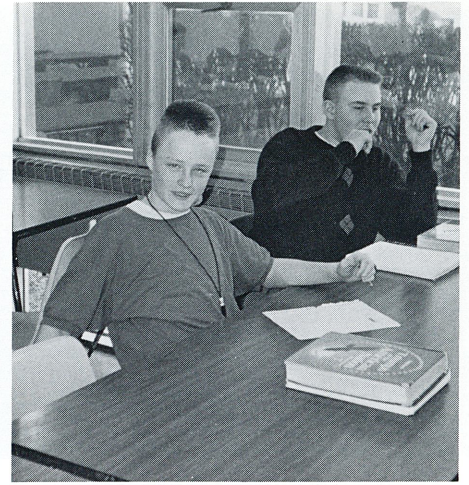

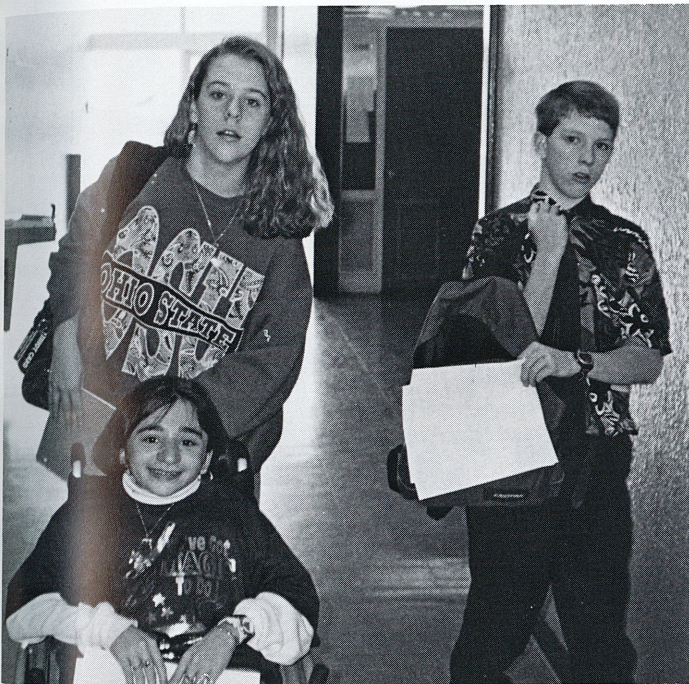

Ready, set, smile you're on Campus Camera!

Nikki Daniska, What are you doing?

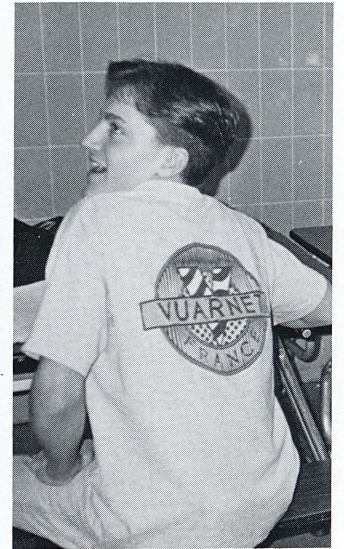

Aren't study halls the best?

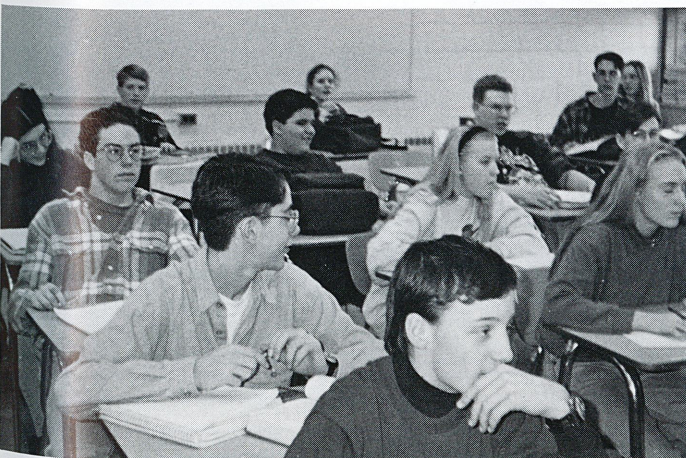

Just a stroll down the hall in the Freshman building.

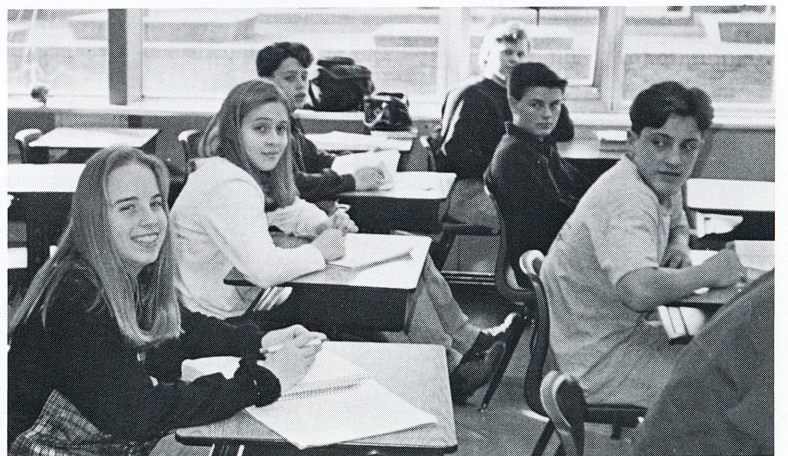

Did you call me?

I'm almost studying . . .

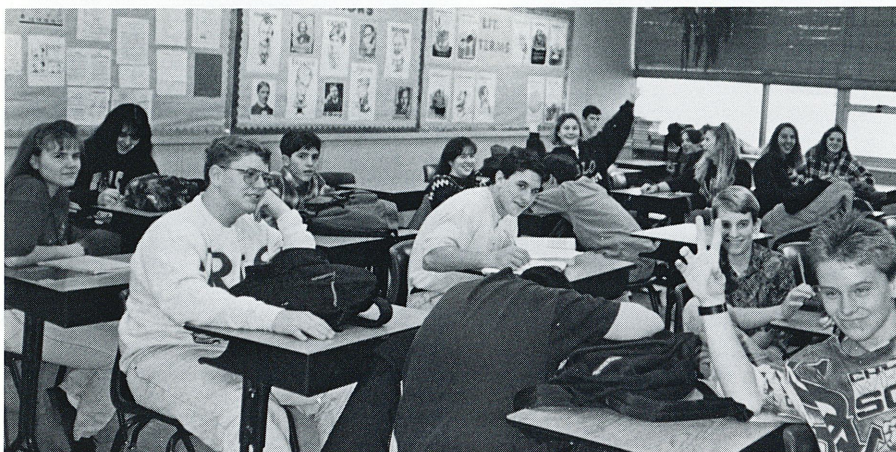

One more time class . . . last time . . .

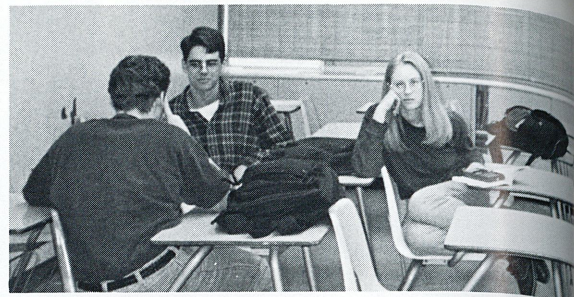

Smile, everyone! The teacher is not looking.

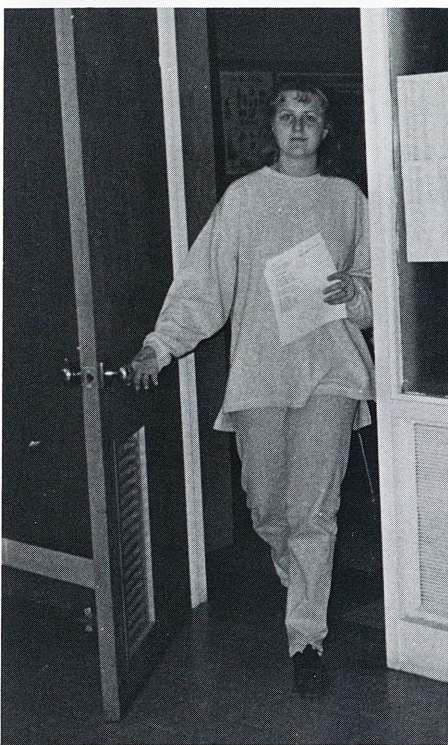

Who let these students out of the zoo?

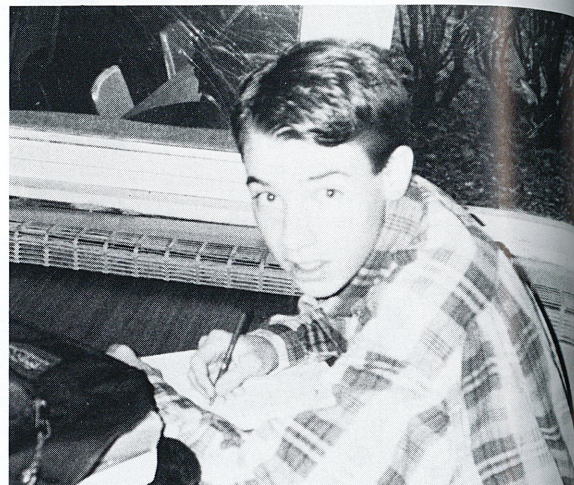

Could you at least act interested?

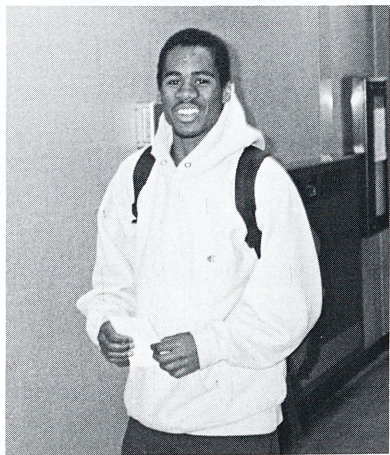

Who's absent today Amy Laska?

"How do you like my nails?"

How can you work and look at the camera at the same time?

Where are you going Tony Chin?

This sure doesn't look like the wild life to me! Perhaps it's hibernation?

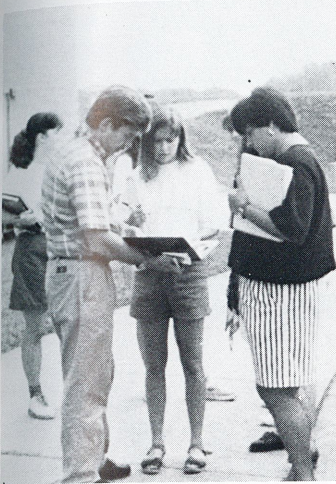

Above: Jon Montanari are you O.K.? Right: Let's make some noise!

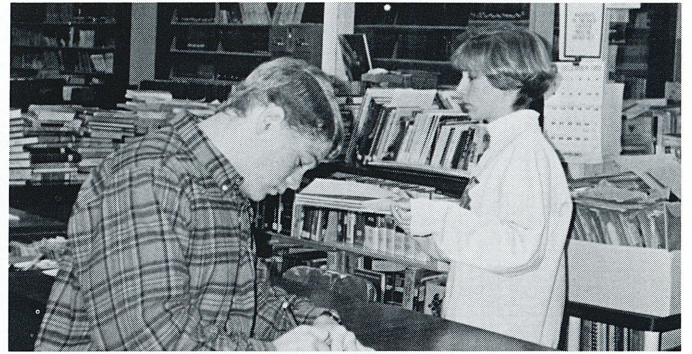

Throw some candy my way, please.

Mrs. Poleski, Ruth, and Larry debate what to do next.

Marianna Echard is receiving assistance from Mr. Schaeffer.

Adam and Laura use their spare time wisely.

Everybody cheer!

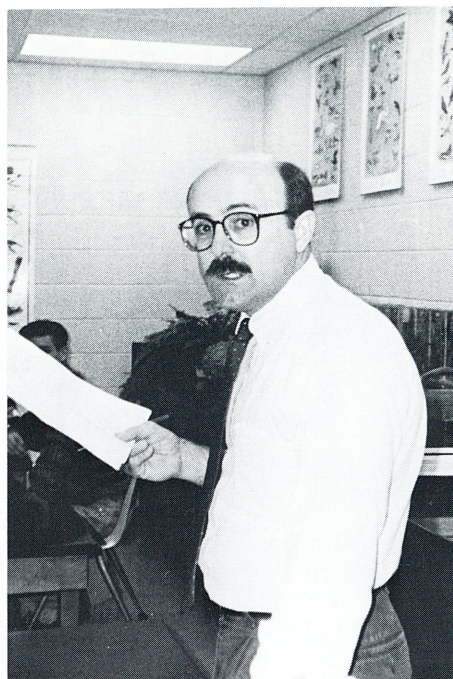

Upper left: What are we suppose to be doing? Lower left: Claudia Hutchison doesn't appear to be studying. Above: Doesn't everyone look to be having fun?

Lions and the faculty have more in common than roaring and acting scary; they also teach and guide. Just as the lions are the kings of the jungle, our faculty members are the rulers of our school. We can always look to them when we need help or when we are just confused. During those times we count on the faculty to be our leaders, as strong and wise as the king of the jungle.

Always spreading knowledge, Mr. Ceraso gives a speech.

Faculty/Administration

Upper Left: Mr. Pipkins is always keeping up with the current events. Above: Mr. Dupstadt is always ready to help his students. Far Lower Left: Mr. Argyros is getting ready for the next cross country meet. Left: Mr. Balla only likes to use his loud voice at pep rallies and basketball games.

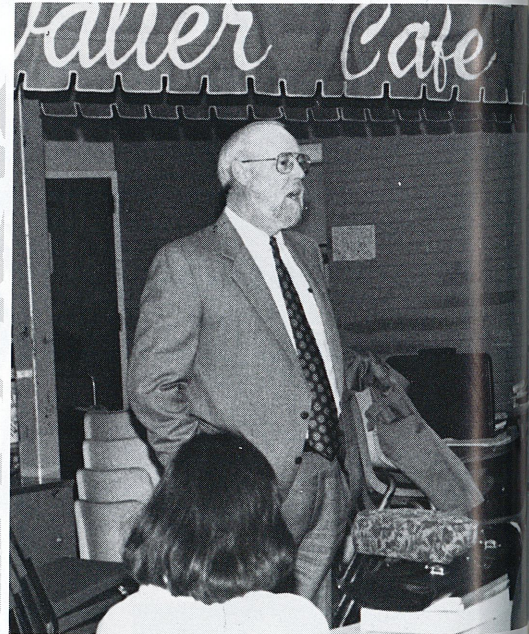

"King Of The Jungle" Principal John Shaner

Mr. John Shaner has done much for Kiski as principal.

The administration of Kiski Area High School changed this year. The newest member was John Shaner, principal. Even though the changes that Mr. Shaner implemented needed student to make adjustments, all of the student body reaped the benefits of an involved principal. Some of the changes were an activity period in the afternoon, an added teaching period, gym classes during an entire semester, and the pink slip policy. The two assistant principals are Ronald Brozovich and Larry Steuart. Along with the faculty, office secretaries and guidance counselors, the principals will surely be able to experience many more productive years in the future.

Mr. Shaner checks over Kiski's wildlife.

Mr. James Trunzo: Teacher Of The Year

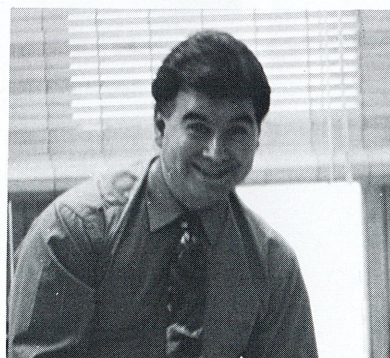

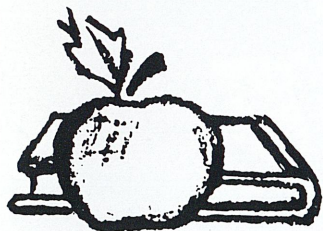

Mr. James Trunzo was elected by the class of 1993 as the the Teacher of the Year. Congratulations!

Mr. Trunzo, the Teacher of the Year, became a teacher by accident!! His first choice in college was to study to be a librarian. The classes on library science were too tough, so he changed his major to English. This is only because he liked to read! But it is certainly no accident that he was voted Teacher of the Year. Mr. Trunzo is a friendly and approachable teacher.

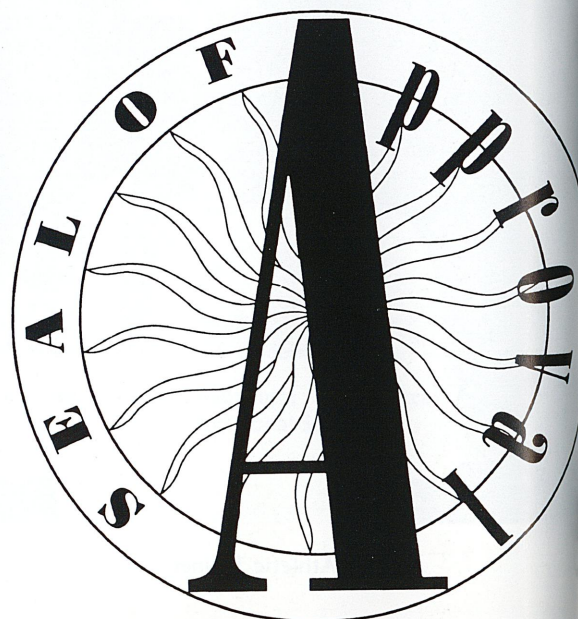

Mr. Trunzo feels that he is not any better than any of his students, and if they treat him with respect, he will treat them the same. Being an understanding person, Mr. Trunzo knows that not everyone does well in every subject. He said, "Just because you may not do well in English, it doesn't make you stupid." He also won't teach something if he can't answer why he is teaching it. "Everything should relate to real life, you have to have a reason to why you're teaching what you are."

Mr. Trunzo takes the extra step to be helpful to his students. He's sincere and cares about individuals. He's a former softball and baseball coach, a past National Honor Society Sponsor, and is now involved with the re-doing of the junior curriculum.

It's obvious why Mr. Trunzo was voted Teacher of the Year. He has earned the same respect from students that he gives to them.

Always happy to help, Mr. Trunzo was elected for his helping nature.

96 Teacher Of The Year

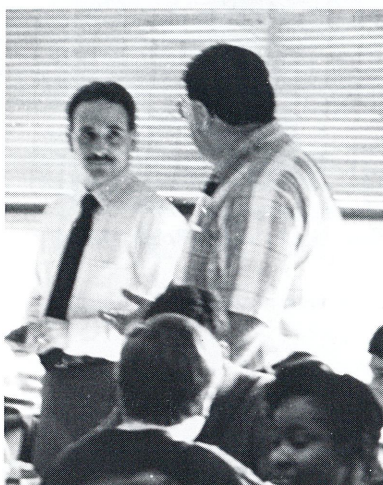

Are they all there?

Did you have a lemon lately?

Mrs. Scales, are your goodies movin' and groovin'?

How about that game Friday night?!

Is this your idea of hard work?

Cutting class Mr. Brozovich?

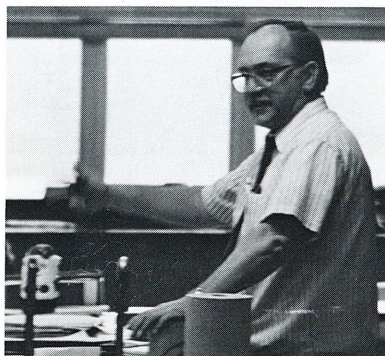

Mr. Jewart hard at work.

Don't you wish you had some Kool-aid?

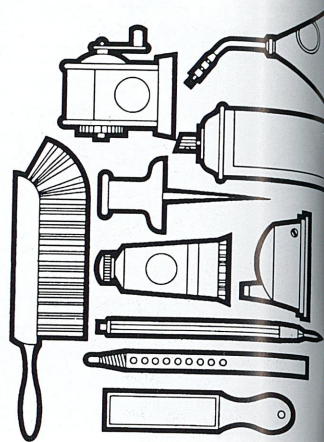

Far Left: Are we sleeping?
Left: Would the dog understand it?

KATHEY

Amy Jancaro and Erin Mazanek, are you on-lookers or players?

Mr. Pollick, is that legal.

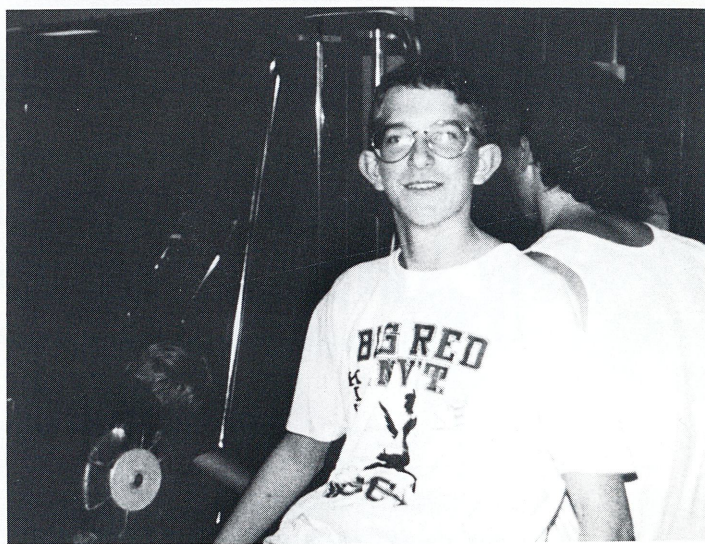

The giraffe, with its long neck and body, stands tall and proud, like the athletes and coaches of Kiski Area. In fact, the giraffe's tall slender frame resembles a basketball player dribbling the ball down the court. And, the giraffe's graceful motions can be compared to many sporting events, such as the swim team perfecting the movements of the breast stroke. Physical appearance is not the only ingredient for a winning athlete; dedication, determination, talent, perseverance, positive attitudes and strength are needed.

Crack! The ball's quick, curving journey to the catcher's mitt is suddenly interrupted by a Kiski Area baseball bat. However, America's favorite past time requires more than hitting the ball; players also have to know how to field, throw, run, slide and intimidate the other team. With a number of its players on Legion baseball teams or in other leagues, the baseball team and coach Jack Jewert, welcome talent and experience to the dugout each year.

Cross country is one sport in which the participants need great self-discipline and dedication. This year's cross country teams had the characteristics needed to be victorious. Their season began in July when both the boy's and the girl's cross country teams started their grueling practices. Their determination continued throughout their season, and their hard work paid off with their appearances at the state championships. The success of the teams was due to the strong leadership of senior captain, Kim McDermott, juniors and highscorers, Lynn Walton and Colleen Synan for the girls Bob Ralston for the boys. Congratulations to both teams and good luck in the future.

"The sasquatch is a dark and eerie thing," a wise man once said, or was it a senior QB Dan Bangele talking about fellow senior Brian Fields? Many thought this year's KA football season would be dark and eerie but Kiski students never stop supporting each other. Pride remained high as the Cavaliers battled against extremely difficult competition, though never in an uneventful or unexciting game.

Richard Dilts and the assistant coaches gave support to their senior "Badboys" and the rest of the KA football team.

BOYS' SOCCER

Who needs to go to world cup when right in our own back yard is the Kiski area soccer teams! Soccer players need to aquire many strengths to do well. Endurance, skill, game smarts, and agility are needed to excel in this excruciating sport.

This year was the first year that soccer was ever played at Davis Field. Both the boys' and girls' teams respectively had their chances to shine under the lights on their senior nights. This was a wonderful chance to bring attention to an up-and-coming sport that is not very publicized.

Kiski Araa is proud to have its students attend the Northern Westmoreland Career and Technology Center, commonly known as N.W.C.T.C., in New Kensington. The students have their choice of many fields to obtain training for their futures. Some of these fields include Auto Mechanics, Foods, Medical Assisting, and Cosmetology. The N.W.C.T.C. is working hard on improving chances for a productive future not only for Kiski students but for students in the Burrell, Valley, and Franklin Regional areas as well. The teachers and their fields help students so they may succeed in the years to come.

VICA, which stands for Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, is a national organization for students taking classes in industrial, technical and health - related subjects. Local VICA sponsors for this year were Mr. Joe Tammariello, Machine Tool instructor, and Mr. Bill Kraynik, Welding instructor. The club is divided into two parts: students who attend morning classes and students who attend afternoon classes. One event that students like to participate in is the District Eight competitions. These competitions are held every year and are only for VICA members. During the competitions students are put to the test with activities concerning their chosen field. VICA is an excellent way for VoTech students to meet people with similar interests and to gain recognition in their trades.

The club program at the high school involves many students and achieves many different goals. Unfortunately, Kiski Area does not have a cracker club for Polly and her friends, but a parrot could easily fit in with some of the clubs at the high school. Clubs and other activities give students the chance to communicate and voice their opinions. Student council and the Key Club plan events of interest for the student body, and KAE-TV airs opinion segments, such as "Movie Talk" with Jenn and Craig. Other clubs are created to have fun and play games while learning, such as the Chess Club and the Computer Club. However, a parrot's favorite club would be the Environmental Club because it concerns current issues that affect many people and animals. Whatever the purpose, clubs are a great way to get to know other people, or parrots, with similar interests.

The German Club is a very active club at Kiski due to its sponsor, Mr. Pipkins. The club takes part in many activities and fundraisers. The club members try to plan activities that are educational and give students the opportunity to learn more about the German Culture.

This year the members of the Spanish Club were the students enrolled in the Spanish IV class. Because of the busy schedules of the spanish teachers and the students, all of the club's business was taken care of during class time. The club sold Kool-Aid during activity period to help wash down the yearbook staff's donuts. Also, the club attended a Spanish culture presentation at the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial in Oakland at the beginning of the year. Another way the club learned about Spain was the time spent with the foreign exchange students.

The A-V Crew, sponsored by Mr. Stauffer, helps teachers obtain VCR's and overhead projectors throughout the day. Not only does the A-V crew provide services to the teachers, they also help produce the telethon for us every year and KAE-TV every morning. This club is one of the most important groups at Kiski, and their help is always greatly appreciated.

MOCK TRIAL

Thinking of becoming a lawyer? You might want to try out for the mock trial team. But don't think it's all fun and games "playing court." Oh no, this mock trial is heavy duty stuff. A real judge and a real jury made up of real lawyers are seated in the courtroom. The two teams battling it out each represent either the plaintiff's or the defendant's side of a made up case. The jury scores each person on portraying his or her character, and the judge makes his decision on which side wins the case. The season is hard on each member's nerves, but they made it through. Keep up the good work, mock trialers!

ART

Any student who likes to draw, paint, or sketch would be an excellent candidate for the Art Club. Kiski's most talented artists take part in many of the club's activities. For example, during the Christmas season, the members show their talents while bringing Christmas joy by painting the school's windows. Thanks to the Art Club, Kiski is a brighter place to be!

Since September 1st, several students have voluntarily given up their free time to help others. Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Donati say that students learn to improve their gym and social skills with the help of these volunteers. Every year, the group attends the Special Olympics at Latrobe and strive to "bring back the gold." Selling candy is the major fund raiser for a planned field trip and the purchase of Kiski jerseys to wear at Special Olympics. The fact that these students are willing to give of their free time to help someone who is not as fortunate as themselves is a tribute — not only to them, but to Kiski as well.

Computers: the minds of the future. But computers are not run on their own; they are controlled by people. In this case, it is Kiski Area students. Computer Club, run by L. Dudzik, is not only a learning experience for the students, but it is also fun. The students can play computer games and invent their own programs. So, if the sound of bleeps is music to your ears, the Computer Club is just for you.

Taking a good picture isn't something you can learn in a day. To take a good, quality picture one must have knowledge of his camera. This is taught to the participants of the photography club, by Mr. Dudzik, the club sponsor. The club members also learn how a camera is used and how to develop their own pictures. While some students at Kiski like to have their pictures taken, others prefer taking the picture.

Everybody needs to "pitch in" to help save the earth, and these students are leading the way! Supervised by Mr. Lemmon and Mrs. Jones the Environmental Club is trying to make tomorrow a little greener. Some of the club's major activities are planning trees, cleaning up around the school, and picking up trash with the state's adopt-a-Highway program. If you like to be outdoors, this is the club for you!

Every year when the Varsity Club is called to have their pictures taken for the yearbook, nearly 75% of the Kiski Area ask themselves, "What the heck is the Varsity Club?!" Well, finally, here's the answer: The Varsity Club recognizes athletes who have earned a varsity letter in any sport. So, yes, to belong to this club, all that is required is to have earned a varsity letter. Now, hopefully, next year when the Varsity Club is called for pictures, it won't be such a mystery.

KEY CLUB

Interestingly enough, the Key Club has nothing to do with keys! This club is a chapter of the Kiwanis Club in Vandergrift and is sponsored by Mr. Wicklendt. The club is only open to juniors and seniors, and new members are voted in by the existing members. The club is a charitable organization that raises money for the Salvation Army and other groups.

Y.T.S.C.

SADD, Students Against Drunk Driving, is a group that focuses on making the roads safer. The members try to influence their peers not to drink and drive. The club annually takes part in such activities as Red Ribbon Week and the Prom Promise. This year SADD sponsored a Christmas Dance. Each participant of the dance brought a nonperishable food item that was donated to the Leechburg Food Bank. SADD works very hard to promote the safety of KA students.

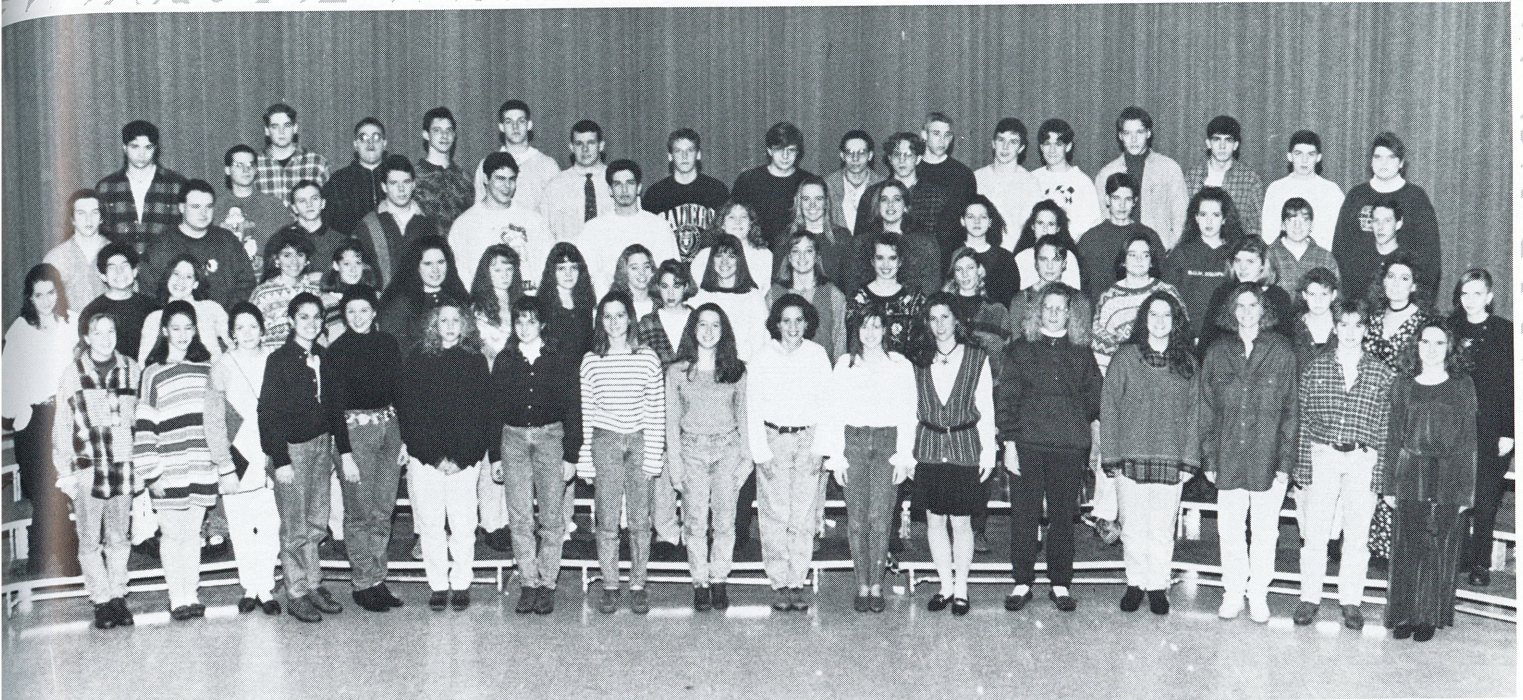

Buckle up, its the law! The YTSC, also known as the Youth Traffic Safety Council, encourages everyone to wear seatbelts while they are riding in a vehicle. Throughout the year, members of the council conduct seatbelt checks on cars driving into the high school. The YTSC works hard to keep Kiski students and faculty safe when they're on the road!

At the beginning of each semester, the journalism students were a little baffled by the computers and the amount of work needed for each issue. With teacher, Mr. Eugene Iagnemma to aid the students every step of the way, the Kiskizette came out monthly with great success. New computer technology made the paper look even more professional, and the increased number of journalism students allowed for longer, more colorful and interesting Kiskizettes. The editors-in-chief, page editors, photo and art editors, ad managers, and the rest of the staff worked hard to interview, photograph, write, format and put together Kiski's newspaper.

OFFICE WORKERS

Whether delivering passes, collecting attendance sheets, or running errands for administrators, the office workers are always on the ball. They dedicated their free time to helping out around the office. Tracking down students and patiently accepting late excuses of "I missed the bus" is not easy. So the next time you see an office worker, smile and say, "Is Mr. Shaner in?"

With the guidance of Mr. Norton, the junior and senior gifted English students publish a literary magazine called "The Kiski Writer." The students solicit poems, short stories, and art work from all of the high school English classes, and this year for the first time, students visited the intermediate school to ask for submissions. After collecting, reading and analyzing the submissions, the best ones were chosen to be published. Near the end of the school year, the finished magazine was distributed. Congratulations to all of the now-published writers, and Good Job to all of the staff members.

With their TI-81 calculators in hand and their pencils tucked behind their ears, the math team and club solve numerous mathematical problems with the greatest of ease. Under the supervision of Mrs. Scales, the students either compete in Math meets at local high schools or become tutors. We all know how $2 + 2$ equals 4, but does anyone know how to find the area of the curve of the shape formed by function f and function g ?

Powdered snow, hot chocolate, and rude lift-operators. Who would know more about these things than ski club members? This club, sponsored by Mr. Duppstadt at the High School and Miss. Mazanek and Mr. Bissell at the Intermediate School, is an excellent opportunity for students who want to learn to ski, or even for those skiers who are already experienced. The members of ski club go to either Hidden Valley or Seven Springs once a week for five weeks beginning in January. So, when it starts to snow, we know what the ski club members are thinking- time to hit the slopes!

For those of you who are left in the dark, the F.B.L.A. stands for the Future Business Leaders of America. These business students visit the New Kensington Commercial School to attend seminars on various topics ranging from "How To Dress For Success" to learning computer fundamentals. These club members learn the "ropes" of the business world and how to be a successful entrepreneur.

Kiski Area's telethon committee is made up of student council members from ninth through twelfth grades. This handful of students spend time in the weeks before the December telethon visiting area businesses and gathering support for the upcoming broadcast shown from the K-Mart parking lot. With the A-V Crew, Mr. Stauffer, Mr. Nicholas, and the volunteer student hosts' help, the committee raised thousands of dollars for the local Salvation Army. The money collected aids the people in the immediate area. The committee members sacrifice precious time to coordinate the telethon and make it run smoothly.

The Red Ribbon Club is one of the newest club's at Kiski. The purpose of the Red Ribbon Committee is to promote a drug free message. During Red Ribbon Week Kiski's halls are filled with signs and banners with drug free slogans. Also, this year members of the committee decorated outside the high school by hanging other banners and lining the school's fence with red balloons. Mrs. Rossi and the Red Ribbon Committee hope to encourage students to JUST SAY NO TO DRUGS!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members inducted into the National Honors Society at the yearly banquet are students selected for their hard work and achievements. This nationally recognized group is involved with several money raising activities to benefit the school. NHS sponsor, Mrs. Ruth Filer, gives leadership when necessary to these juniors and seniors. Students striving for excellence and academic success are rewarded with their elite society's membership.

Auk! Auk! The Auk bird is the official mascot of the Knowledge Master Open Test, which is one of the Gifted Forum's major activities. The group consists of students who have previously been tested as gifted and who want an extra chance to learn about history. They meet every Monday 4th period, with Mr. Balla to work on projects such as bulletin board displays and a time capsule, or to relax and watch historical videos.

CHESS

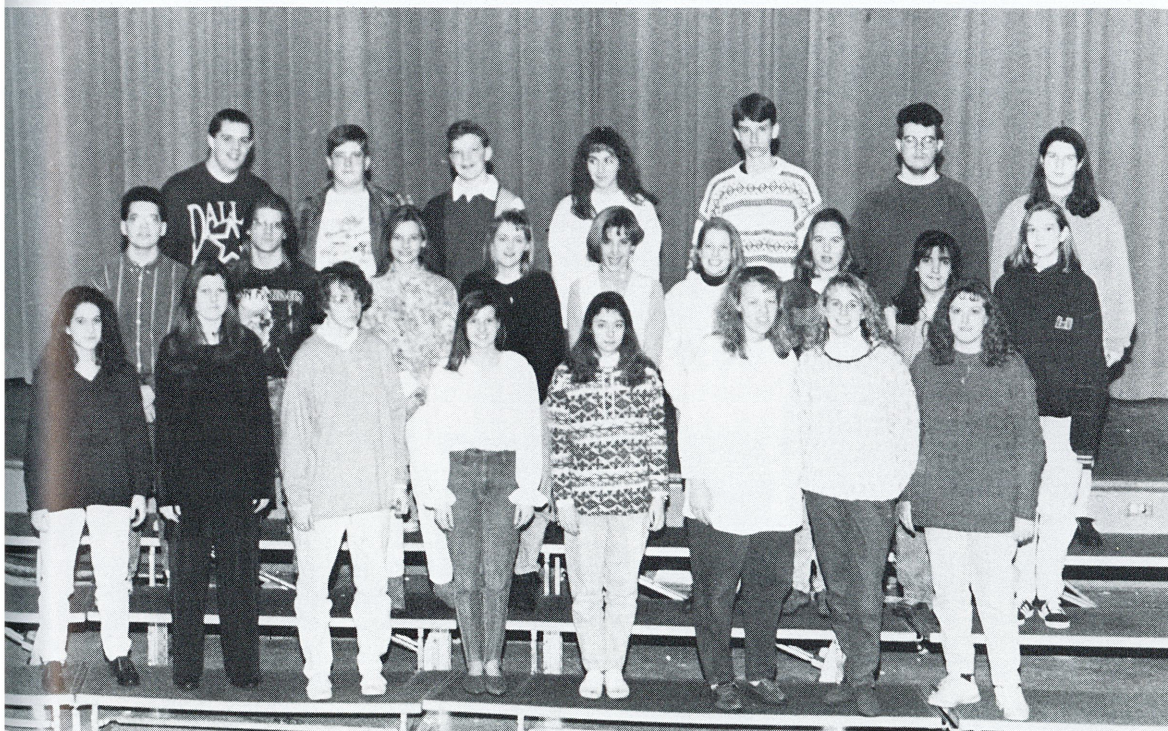

Searching for Bobby Fischer? If so, you may want to "Check" out Kiski Area's own chess club. The club is sponsored by chemistry teacher, Mr. Barsic. The chess club allows students to challenge their minds by playing the game of chess. They discuss strategies and learn new ways to capture an opponent's king. Although chess may be a mind-boggling game, it can relieve students' stress from every-day problems.

JUNIOR STUDENT COUNCIL

The students council is made up of two representatives from each homeroom. The representatives are elected by their fellow classmates. They attend meetings, and then they report the happenings to their homeroom. Mr. Nicholas is in charge of the student council. Some of the events that the student council sponsored are the telethon, homecoming, the senior citizens banquet, dances, and much more.

JAZZ ROCK

"Virginia Beach, here we come!" echoed in the thoughts of many a member of the K.A. choirs this year. After an exciting three days in New York City in April '92, the 9th, 10th, & Concert choirs, the new Kiski Chorale and the three small groups were ready to show off their hard work in New York City. Directed by Ellen Rupert, these 9th-12th graders also compete in an annual adjudication festival while performing several concerts during the school year.

Right: Everything is different at this school when you look at it upside down. Above: Eric Hollenbaugh and Jackson are the future Chef Boyardee.

Just like the kangaroo carries its young in a pouch, the students of Kiski Area carry fond memories close to their hearts. All events in a student's life lead to senior year and, finally, graduation. Events such as the Prom, various pep assemblies, VoTech classes, skip days, and Friday nights at the movies and McDonalds. Remembering everything in the past, graduates are ready to "jump" into the future. And, those returning to the Big K are going to go through each year until they "jump" into their own futures.

Student Life

SENIOR

Having a foreign exchange student visit your school is a great learning experience. Not only does the foreign exchange benefit from living in a new country, but the American students also learn about a different culture. This year, the students of the high school became friends with two brothers, Juan and David Pascual, who are originally from Madrid, Spain. David arrived in the United States early in the school year and was living with Kelly Gray, a junior, and his family. Juan joined his brother later in the year and was living with sophomore Autumn Barnes and her family. Learning slang from the Spanish language and noting the difference between Spain and America, the students of Kiski were happy to get to know Juan and David.

John Foley and Jennifer Steele were both selected to sing this year at the WPXI Carol Sing. After the excitement of being on television settled, both relaxed and got to know and talk to students with similar interests. Jen and John furthered their singing interests in school-related groups also. They both sang with Honors Choir, County Chorus, District Chorus, and Jazz Rock, among other groups. With the wide variety of choirs and activities at the high school, Jen and John have been offered numerous opportunities to continue singing. They have seized the opportunities and have been successful. Jen said, "I enjoy singing immensely." John credits chorus teacher, Mrs. Ellen Rupert, with some of his success. He said, "She was not only a good teacher but a friend." Both plan to attend college. We wish them luck in the future, but their voices will be missed at Kiski.

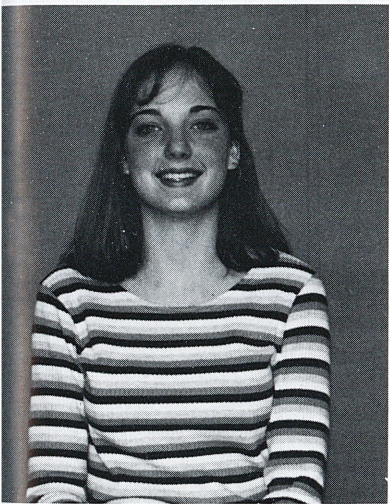

For many years, a major part of Lynsey Brandt's life has been music. Infact, she has been taking piano lessons for twelve years. Lynsey prefers to play jazz music. She has played in the KA Jazz Ensemble for the past four years. Also, in tenth through twelfth grades, Lynsey was the only pianist selected for the Pennsylvania All-State Jazz Ensemble. Other musical experiences include playing jazz piano at Pittsburgh restaurants, playing organ at two local churches, and playing the clarinet in Kiski's Wind Ensemble. Lynsey was also selected for the Alle-Kiski Honors Band for playing the clarinet. Another interesting part to Lynsey's music is the fact that she entered and won the Pittsburgh Piano Teachers' Association Composition contest four years ago. She won first place for her composition, "Expressions from the Heart," and third place for "Tranquil Moments". While Lynsey is stydying pharmacy at Duquesne University, she will continue to play jazz piano as a hobby.

Upon the beginning of spring sports and the track season, Beth Antonikas has hopes to defend her position in the WPIAL and to return to state competition once again. Beth has been a member of the track team since seventh grade. She ran in several sprinting events and began to high jump in ninth grade. As a sophomore, Beth set the school record in the high jump with a 5'6" jump and was WCCA county champion. In eleventh grade, she won the WCCA county championship and broke her previous school record with a jump of 5'7". As a junior, she also earned a trip to the state track meet in Shippensburg, PA and placed third. Some of Beth's other school activities are marching band, student council, telethon committee, ski club, and key club. She has also been an honors student throughout her four years at Kiski. Beth will continue to pursue track as she will be attending Penn State University Park in the fall of 1994. Beth plans to run track because she enjoys both it's individual and team aspects. She said, "Track involves a team's success and still allows for individual success in certain events."

Advertising

Advertisements from businesses provide the money needed to print and distribute the yearbook each year. Ads are very important to the yearbook, as is the hippopotamus to the animal kingdom. Hippos prove that big is beautiful. They grow from 100 pounds in infancy to nearly 4 tons as adults. Just as the hippo plays a pertinent role in the animal kingdom and ads give importance to the yearbook, every person and each face in the high school add a unique part to daily routine at the Big K.

Person You Are Now. You Will Go Far With The Love And Caring That You Have.

Love, MOM

Nearly 18 years ago a new edition to our family came our way, we were sure she would grow up to be a beautiful woman someday, we knew that our baby would make this world a special place, but didn't know that she would be so strong,
and confident and have such a lovely face, we know now that she will do great things with her life, maybe would help bring peace, and justice, and an end to the world's strife, that's why we feel lucky to give her our love and blessing in all that she will do, because it was God's plan to create only one like you. Love you always,
Mom, Dad, Steven, and Sadie

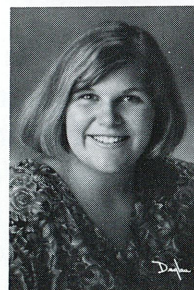

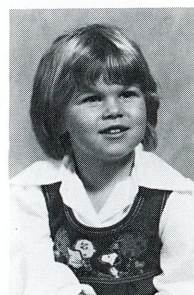

Muffie - From Kindergarten To Senior You've Always Done Your Best And It's Finally Paid Off
For You. Now, Get Ready For The Rest Of Your Life. We Couldn't Be Prouder Of You.

Love, MOM & DAD

Andrea,
I'm Very Proud To
Have You As My Daughter. You
Have Become A
Very Giving,
Loving, And
Independent
Person. With
These Qualities
You Will Go Far In Life.

Love,
MOM

Clayton Eyler stops for a refreshing drink of Coke before practice.

Jason Janoscat is just one of the talented artists at Kiski.

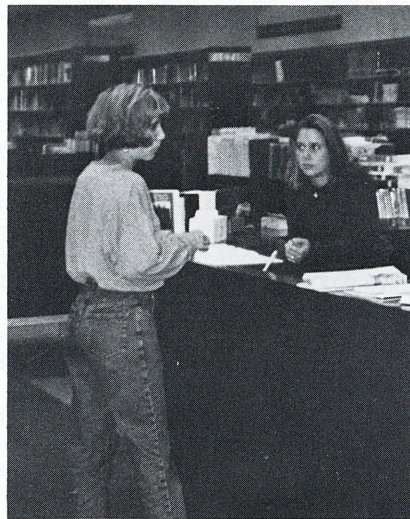

These students take the opportunity to talk during their break.

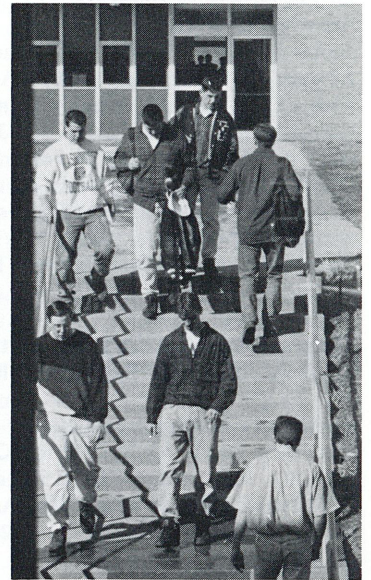

Aaron Booker casually strolls down the hall.

Above: Matt Aul, are you copying off Jack Kirchartz? Below: Kristen Intreiri gossips with her friends.

Laura Cipa asks Amanda Stovcsik where her book is.

These athletes go toward the gym for practice.

Kelly Fester, did you have a nice nap? You should follow Ebony Allensworth's example.

A bear can shut down most animals with a single swing of his paw. Now, the bear is closing the yearbook, leaving the lingering memories of the 1993-1994 school year. Looking back, this year's students roared their way through the Big K. We'll be gone for the summer, but sure to tear through the halls again next year.
